Dear Mr. Starky,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT REQUEST:
JOB ADVERTISEMENTS

Thank you for your enquiry dated 1st April 2009 asking for information under the Freedom of Information (Fol) Act 2000, which we received on 2nd April 2009.

You asked for:

... the number of job vacancies currently advertised within your department on this day 1/04/09 broken down into those advertised internally and those advertised externally ...

As at 1st April, the Treasury was advertising 15 vacancies internally, 5 externally and a generic graduate-level recruitment campaign for an unspecified number of posts.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us at the email account given in the header to this letter. It would help us, if you could remember to quote the IRU reference number (also in the header) in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Rights Unit
On behalf of HM Treasury

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

If you are not happy with this reply, you may request a review by writing to HM Treasury, Information Rights Unit, 2/S2, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ. Email foi.responses@hm-treasury.gov.uk.

Any review request must be made within 2 months of the date of this letter.

It would assist our review if you set out which aspects of the reply concern you and why you are dissatisfied.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Treasury. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.
