Dear Mr Main

Freedom of Information case 09/0533

Thank you for your e-mail request of 15 April 2009.

You asked for the dates of any meetings between Jan 1st 2006 and April 15th 2009 between BERR and Phorm along with details of those present.

Our records show that there have been two meetings between BERR and Phorm.

The first occurred on 13 May 2008. This was an informal presentation to the Department of the company's technology and no note was taken. The names of the officials that attended are being withheld under Section 40 – Personal information, of the Freedom of Information Act. The presentation that the company gave can be found on their website <http://www.phorm.com/>

Details of the second meeting on 18 November 2008 have already been released and can be found at http://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/internet_privacy_government_warn#outgoing-17814. Under the Act, we can withhold information which is already reasonably accessible elsewhere under Section 21 of the Act

Yours sincerely

Patrick Balchin
