Dear Mr Halliday,

Re: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 17 April 2009 timed 08:16 hours, requesting the following:

Can you please tell me the total of relocation expenses paid to your director of finance Robert Fraser since his appointment.

Can you please tell me the headings and amounts under which this total amount was paid i.e. removal expenses, legal fees etc

Can you please tell me the normal maximum amount that Glasgow University is prepared to pay in relocation expenses.

If your policy on relocation expenses is on your website can you please send me a link to this part of your website otherwise can you please send me a copy of the policy

Can you please tell me how many times the normal maximum amount for relocation expenses has been exceeded since October 2003, what the actual amount paid has been and when it was authorised and when it was paid. Can you please also tell me in each case how the decision to pay in excess of the normal maximum amount was taken and who authorised it.

As the University of Glasgow is a Scottish Public Authority, your request is subject to the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“FOISA”). The University acknowledges receipt of your request and confirms that it will respond to you under the terms of FOISA and within the time scales required by FOISA. The Freedom of Information Office will contact you if we require any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Data Protection and Freedom of Information Office
