UK Border Agency

24 April 2009

Dear M Khan,

Thank you for your below email this falls to be dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Section 1(3) of the Freedom of Information Act provides that a public authority need not comply with a request for information unless any further information reasonably required to identify and locate the information is supplied. I am unclear about the exact scope of the information in which you are interested. To ensure that we provide you with the right information, please could you clarify your request, so that we can process your request.

I do not understand what you mean by making a deposition and would be grateful if you would explain what you mean by making a deposition. You also state that your below email is an application for Freedom of Information for making a complaint; again I do not understand what you are requesting if you are complaining about a previous response to a Freedom of Information request then I will need the reference number given in our response. If you wish to lodge a complaint you will find information on how to make a complaint on the UK Border Agency website.

When you provide this information we will aim to send you a full response to your request within twenty working days of its receipt. I look forward to hearing from you shortly. However, please note that if I do not receive appropriate clarification of your request within three months from the date of this letter, I will consider this request to be closed.

Yours sincerely,

Mr P Feakins,
Freedom of Information
