Dear Herbert

Haringey

I imagine you are getting a lot of correspondence about this. I thought it worth reminding you that I chaired the Kent Child Protection Committee for thirteen years and consolidated a range of child protection protocols for children under the age of eight. As you possibly know, I have very strong views about current structures.

I am intending to write a piece for the Conservative Shadow Government but I would be very willing to take part in any working group if you were asked to set one up. I think there are issues here for Chief Executives as set out in your report, but most important are the underpinning practical issues. Having been a practitioner, and both Director and Chief Executive of the largest authority in the country, I believe I have something to offer. I enclose a booklet I produced when I was Director.

Best Wishes.

Yours sincerely

Chief Executive

* Booklet enclosed called "A personal perspective on the future of social work & social-care services in the UK."
