Dear Mr Griffiths,

REVIEW OF REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I am writing in response to your email of 14 January in which you requested an internal review of the Cabinet Office's response to your request of 1 December 2008. Your original request was for information about security training for the Cabinet Office guard force.

I have now completed my review of the Cabinet Office's response, dated 19 December, and am content that the letter answers fully and satisfactorily both the questions you initially raised and the points you made in your email requesting the internal review of that reply. In the light of this, I am satisfied that the original response was appropriate and therefore have nothing further to add to the information given to you in that response.

I should also be clear that I do not propose to get into any further correspondence with you regarding this case. If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office

Yours sincerely,

Sue Gray
