Dear 'Keith',

Your request was received on 14 May 2009 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You asked:

1 - The total number of individual members of public (if any) that have reported, with DOCUMENTED EVIDENCE (as in this download (600MB):

[<http://www.megaupload.com/?d=QGYFFSVV>], the individuals that made up the HEATH GOVERNMENT and SUBSEQUENT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, for the CRIME OF TREASON.

2 - What positive action, if any, by yourselves was taken on receipt of the said documented proof?

3 - If not taken seriously and dismissed:

a) how far up the chain of command the reported crime go until enquiries were terminated?

b) what is the name of the public servant that made the decision?

c) what was the reason for the decision?

d) does that public servant still hold his/her position of authority?

4 - If more than one report has been made to yourselves, was the same public servant responsible for the decision not to submit the documented evidence for the prosecution of the criminals.

Section 8 (1) (b) of the Freedom of Information Act sets out the requirements of a valid request for information and says that a request must, amongst other things, 'state the name of the applicant'. The Information Commissioner, in guidance which is available at http://www.ico.gov.uk/upload/documents/library/freedom_of_information/detailed_specialist_guides/name_of_applicant_fop083_v1.pdf, states that 'title and/or first name with surname satisfies the requirement for provision of a real name'.

Unless and until you provide a full name, thereby making this a valid request, we will not process your request further.
