23 June 2009

Dear Mr Main

Thank you for your email of 22 May asking for copies of correspondence pertaining to the response to the e-petition:
<http://www.number10.gov.uk/Page19318>.

Your request has been handled under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Freedom of Information Act provides the requestor with an access right to recorded information. It does not extend, for example, to requests for views or comments about a particular matter. The Freedom of Information Act does not require Public Authorities to create new information for the purpose of responding to a request.

The Department for Business, Innovation and Skills (DBIS), formerly the Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform, provided the response to the above petition. You may, therefore, wish to write to the DBIS Freedom of Information Team at the following address:
1 Victoria Street
London
SW1H 0ET

I can confirm that the Prime Minister's Office does not hold the information you require.

Yours sincerely

NS Howard

NICHOLAS HOWARD

If you are unhappy with the level of service you have received from this office in relation to any aspect of your request, you may ask for an internal review.

You should contact:

Sue Gray
Director
Cabinet Office
70 Whitehall
London
SW1A 2AS

Email: foiteam@cabinet-office.x.gsi.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after the date that the reply was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
