Dear Mr Grimshaw,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Thank you for your email of 8th June 2009 requesting the following information:

"Please can you take the original request and narrow the timeframe to the last 6 months. You may treat this as a clarification or a new request."

Your original request dated 23rd May 2009 was as follows:

"Please supply all memos, documents and communications referencing the websites known as wikileaks.org (and international versions such as wikileaks.de)."

Your request for information has been handled under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I am writing to advise you that following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by this Department.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number below in any future communications.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request or wish to request an internal review, you should write to:

Sue Gray
Director
Cabinet Office
70 Whitehall
London
SW1A 2AS

email: foiteam@cabinet-office.x.gsi.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after the date that the reply was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely,

YASMINE EDWARDS
