Dear Mr Hansen,

Freedom of Information request (our ref. 12076 internal review)

Thank you for your e-mail of 31 June 2009, in which you asked for an internal review of our response to your Freedom of Information (Fol) request about the 'call to evidence', made by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary in the wake of the G20 protests.

I have now completed the review. I have examined all the relevant papers and have consulted the policy unit which provided the original response. I have considered whether the correct procedures were followed and the content of the information provided to you. I confirm that I was not involved in the initial handling of your request.

My findings are set out in the attached report. My main conclusion is that the original response was broadly correct; however it failed to formally state that the requested information was not held, as is required under Section 1 of the Act. This completes the internal review process by the Home Office.

If you remain dissatisfied with the response to your Fol request, you have the right of complaint to the Information Commissioner at the following address:

The Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire SK9 5AF
Yours sincerely

Robert Clifford
