Case Ref: CR 12129
Date: 3rd July 2009

Dear Mr. Main,

I write further to our email correspondence of the 26th June 2009 and in regards to your request for copies of correspondence between the Home Office and Patricia Hewitt MP that concerned Phorm, 121 Media, Webwise, British Telecom and/or Deep Packet Inspection Advertising.

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

After a thorough search, I regret to inform you that the Home Office does not hold the information you have requested. We have conducted thorough searches that have covered the whole of the department but we have not identified any information that falls within the scope of your request. I am sorry that we are therefore unable to help you with your research in this area.

I realise that this response may be a disappointment to you. However I would like to assure you that a thorough search was conducted and that I am confident that we do not hold the information that you have requested.

Thank you for your interest in the Home Office

Yours sincerely,

Ian Lister
