Dear Mr Ashby

Re: Your request for information: Ref No. FOI 2921

Thank you for your request for information that was received on 22 July 2008 in which you requested:

"Please could you provide me with a copy of all the Designated Public Place Orders made by your authority under sections 12 to 16 of the Police and Criminal Justice Act 2001 and which are currently in force, together with a copy of any maps which show the extent of the area covered by each order?"

Your request is being dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and you will receive a response within 20 working days of the date that we received your request.

If the information you requested contains reference to a third party then they may be consulted before a decision is taken on whether or not to release the information to you. You will be informed if this is the case.

The information you requested contains [reference to a third party / information provided by a third party]. We are notifying them of this request and offering them the opportunity to discuss any particular issues or considerations that they consider relevant to the question of disclosure of this information before deciding whether or not to release the information. If this process is likely to exceed 20 working days you will be notified.

The Act defines a number of exemptions that may restrict the release of the requested information. There will be an assessment and if any of the exemption categories apply then the information may not be released. You will be informed if this is the case, including your rights of appeal.

The information provided will be in English, normal font size. If you require alternative formats, e.g. other language, audio, large print, etc. please notify us.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act is available through the Information Commissioner at the:
