

LPG 1.2.04

Stop and Search

Stop and Account

Learning Descriptor

Version 1.0

The NPIA is operating as the Central Authority Executive Services for the design and implementation of the Initial Police Learning and Development Programme (IPLDP), Wider Policing Family (WPF) learning and development programmes, associated products and services.

© NPIA (National Policing Improvement Agency) October 2007

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, modified, amended, stored in any retrieval system or transmitted, in any form or by any means, without the prior written permission of the NPIA or its representative.

The above restrictions do not apply to police service authorities, which are authorised to use this material for official, non-profit making purposes only.

For additional copies, or to enquire about the content of the document, please contact the IPLDP and WPF Curriculum Design Team on +44 (0) 1423 87 6672/6673

For copyright specific enquiries, please telephone the National Police Library on +44 (0) 1256 602650

This documentation is not protectively marked.

Learning Descriptor

Module 1.2 - Stop and Search

Subject 04 Stop and Account

Target Group

Student Officers

Module

IPLDP - Mandatory

PCSO - Mandatory

Summary

By the end of this module students will be able to explain their duties in relation to the recording of encounters not governed by statutory powers. They will be able to explain the meaning of a recordable encounter and when such an encounter must be recorded, together with circumstances where an officer can refuse to issue a record. Finally they will be able to summarise the meaning and relevance of the 16+1 system of self defined ethnic background and the impact of Code A Codes of Practice Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 when conducting an encounter not governed by statutory powers.

Learning Outcomes

Students who have successfully completed this module will be able to explain their knowledge and understanding in relation to:

1. Encounters not governed by statutory powers (Stop and Account)

Module Content

Students who have successfully completed this module will be able to explain their knowledge and understanding of:-

1. Encounters not governed by statutory powers (Stop and Account)

- a. Outline the meaning of 'recordable encounter' as it applies to Code A Codes of Practice Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, recording of encounters not governed by statutory powers
- b. State where a recordable encounter can take place
- c. Explain what a person can be asked to account for
- d. Explain the requirements placed on an officer in relation to the recording of encounters
- e. Give examples of exemptions to the requirement to record an encounter
- f. Summarise the information that must be recorded
- g. Outline the meaning and purpose of the 16+1 system of self defined ethnic background
- h. Explain what action an officer must take when a person refuses to provide details of their ethnicity
- i. Explain the relevance and impact of Code A Codes of Practice Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 in relation to recordable encounters
- j. In given circumstances, identify when an encounter must be recorded

Reading listsRequired Reading

Student Lesson Notes

Recommended Reading

Blackstone's Police Manual

Pre-requisites

An understanding of the relevant parts of:

Learning Descriptor

IPLDP Central Authority Executive Services

Human Rights Act 1998, Disability Discrimination Act 1995 as amended by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005, Sex Discrimination Act 1975 as amended, Race Relations Act 1976 as amended

Code A PACE Codes of Practice Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984

Co-requisites

IPLDP – LPG1_2_02 Section 1 PACE 1984 SN