Dear Mr John

Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information regarding correspondence between Kip Meek and 121Media. Ofcom received your request on 4 August 2009 and has considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked for:

- Any correspondence (email, letter, fax) between Kip Meek (Ofcom Chief Policy Officer) and the marketing company 121Media in the period 2005 – 2007.
- Dates, agenda, and minutes of any meetings between Kip Meek (Ofcom Chief Policy Officer) and the marketing company 121Media in the period 2005 – 2007.

I am writing to advise you that the information you requested is not held by Ofcom.

If you have any further queries, please let me know. Please quote the reference number above in any future correspondence.

Yours sincerely

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case, but we aim to conclude all internal reviews within 2 months. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Graham Howell
The Secretary to the Corporation

Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
