Dear Mr. Main,

Thank you for your email dated the 14th August 2009 in which you requested an Internal Review into your Freedom of Information Act request concerning correspondence between 121Media/Phorm and the Home Office. My apologies for not contacting you about this review before now.

I have been allocated your request for an Internal Review as an independent official of the Home Office who was not involved in answering your original request.

Whilst the Home Office aims to complete Internal Reviews and provide a response within 40 working days from the date we received your request, the review process has been taking longer than anticipated. I write today to inform you that I am in the process of finalising our response to you and that this response will be approved of the coming weeks and I hope to be able to send this to you no later than the 4th December 2009.

I apologise for this delay and hope that it has not inconvenienced you unduly. If you have any queries regarding the handling of this internal review, then please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Yours sincerely,
