Dear Mr Corbin,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Thank you for your request for information about the merger of OPSI and the National Archives. The Cabinet Office received your request on 12 August 2009 and I have dealt with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I have carried out a search of our electronic and paper records and I have found no information relevant to your request. The Cabinet Office is, therefore, unable to provide you with the five lists you have specified in your request.

If some of the information you seek was held by OPSI before the merger, it is likely that it was transferred to the National Archives at the time of the merger. You may wish to apply to the National Archives for this information. The address is: The National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, TW9 4DU. You may also submit a request for information online by following this link:

<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/contact/form/generalcontactform.asp?id=14&action=1>

If you are unhappy with the decisions made in relation to your request from the Cabinet Office you may ask for an internal review. If you wish to do so you should contact:

Sue Gray
Director
Cabinet Office
70 Whitehall
London
SW1A 2AS

Email: foiteam@cabinet-office.x.gsi.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after a response was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely
