

Reference: RFI 2168 - Gagging Orders in Family Courts

Background

In the wake of the people speaking out against the abuses of the secret family courts and forced adoption of children to strangers, instead of being retained within their real natural families. I would like to know how your authority compares to others in fulfilling your responsibilities to families & their children.

Request (a) How many individuals have been taken to court by your authority in-order to gag them. To stop them from speaking out about the injustices they have suffered at the hands of the council children's social services and secret family courts. Provide all records to-date that are held.

Response

None.

Request (b) How much did these gagging order injunctions cost the rate payer.

Response

Nil. Please see response to request (a).

Request (c) Who is responsible for actioning these enforcement orders by the council, i.e. who signs the applications for court.

Response

Not applicable. Please see response to request (a).

Request (d) How many parents /relatives/individuals have received further sanctions for breaking these gagging orders.

Response

Nil. Please see response to request (a).

Request (e) Are any of these decisions to gag/sanction taken by unelected local authority officers responsible for children's social care, finance, legal or any other relevant department.

Response

Not applicable. Please see response to request (a).

Request (f) If councillors make these decisions at which meeting(s) are these discussed.

Response

Not applicable. Please see response to request (a).
