Dear Mr Jarman,

Freedom of Information Act Request Reference N^o: FOI/692/09

I write in connection with your request for information, which has been received by the Norfolk Constabulary. I note you seek access to the following information:

- 1. Do you have a written policy governing the management and review of police injury pensions? If you do, please provide me with a copy.
- 2. Since August 2004, to date, how many injury pensions have been reduced when reviewed?
- 3. Since August 2004, to date, how many injury pensions have been increased when reviewed?
- 4. Since August 2004, to date, how many injury pensions have been reduced to the lowest band when the former officer in receipt of the pension reached (or had already reached) the age of 65?
- 5. If your force has any document recording any analysis and/or consideration of the guidance contained in Annex C to Home Office circular 46/2004 please supply me with a copy.
- 6. If your force has any document recording any calculation and/or projection of the potential budgetary savings and/or financial impact that might result from adoption of the guidance contained in Annex C to Home Office circular 46/2004 please supply me with a copy.

Notes:

In this request, the term 'document' should be taken to mean any record whether in printed or digital form, including reports, minutes or transcripts of meetings, notes, memoranda, letters, and email, etc.

Your request will now be considered in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act (2000). You will receive a response within the statutory timescale of 20 working days, as defined by the Act, subject to the information not being exempt or containing a reference to a third party.

In advance of our response, I would like to point out that the Freedom of Information Act provides the public with a right to request access to recorded information held by the Constabulary. If any of the information you have requested is not contained in a recorded format, the Constabulary is not obliged to create information for the purpose of responding to your request.

We aim to respond to your request by the 13th January 2010. In some circumstances the Norfolk Constabulary may be unable to achieve this deadline. If this is likely, you will be informed and given a revised timescale at the earliest opportunity.

Yours sincerely,

Nina Bond
