Re: Freedom of Information Act 2000: FOI requests

Thank you for your enquiry dated 11 January requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

2. You asked for – a table showing, for each FOI request received by Her Majesty's Treasury, the date received, the date a final response was given, and the overall nature of the response (e.g. information not held, information supplied, exemptions applied (detailing exemption), request rejected).

3. I attach the relevant information in spreadsheet form, which I hope is accessible to you.

4. If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. It will be helpful to us if you remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Paul Morran
Information Rights Unit

Enclosures: Spreadsheet details of FOI requests received July to December 2009

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

If you are not happy with this reply, you may request a review by writing to HM Treasury, Information Rights Unit, 2/S2, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ.

Email FOI.responses@hmtreasury.gsi.gov.uk

Any review request must be made within 2 months of the date of this letter.

It would assist our review if you set out which aspects of the reply concern you and why you are dissatisfied.

If you are not content with the outcome your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Treasury. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.
