FOI 459

Dear L. Lluva,

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION/ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION REGULATIONS 2004

We refer to your email, received at our office on 14 January 2010, requesting the following information:

"With regard to the LDA (Lower Lea Valley, Olympic and Legacy) Compulsory Purchase Order 2005, can you please provide me with the following information for 'the order land' numbered 16 to 51 inclusive in the Order:

- 1. The name of the freeholder/leaseholder (unless this is a physical person, where this information is not required)*
- 2. The 'order land' number (between 16 and 51 inclusive)*
- 3. Total payment made to the freeholder/leaseholder in respect of land value*
- 4. Total payment made to the freeholder/leaseholder in respect of compensation*
- 5. Any other payment made in relation to the CPO order (excepting professional fees to any lawyer, or any fee to the Land Registry)"*

Duty to Communicate

Regulation 7 of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 allows the 20 working days period for response to be extended to 40 working days if reasonably believed that the complexity and volume of the information requested means that it is impracticable either to comply with the request within the earlier period or to make a decision to refuse to do so. In this case the London Development Agency (LDA) believes that the complexity of the nature of the information requested requires additional time in which to comply with the request and therefore as such we require additional time to provide a response. We expect to be able to provide a response to you by no later than 11 March 2010, however, we will endeavour to respond at the first available opportunity.

Complaint Procedure

If you are not satisfied with our reply to your request, you may lodge a complaint with the LDA Public Liaison Unit at the postal address above or by email at info@lda.gov.uk. Your complaint will be considered by a senior management staff member and you will receive a reply to your complaint within 20 working days.

Should you remain dissatisfied after receiving our reply to your complaint, you may apply to the Information Commissioner to determine whether your request was dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act.

Yours sincerely
