Dear Mr Miles

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER 0066/2010

I refer to your request for information dated 27 January 2010, which was received by Strathclyde Police on same date and clarified by you twice, on the 27 January 2010 and 28 January 2010 and a partial response sent to you on 3 March 2010. I am now in a position to provide you with the remainder of the information in relation to question 10 and I have provided you with this below. I apologise for the delay in responding to you.

10a. How many crimes included the keyword "wine" in some context.

Of the figure quoted in question 1, there were 6,100 crimes that mention 'wine' in some context, either in the crime classification title or in the initial summary text of the crime report. This represents 0.6% of the total level of crime.

10b. How many of these were violent offences?

Of the crime reports which include the word 'wine' 156 of the crime reports include a crime/s of violence, which amounts to 2.56% of crimes which include the word 'wine' and 0.016% of all crime.

I hope this information is helpful, however, if you are not satisfied with the way in which your request has been dealt with, you are entitled in the first instance to request a review of the decision made by the Force. Should you wish to request such a review, please write to Mrs Sheena Brennan, Disclosure Manager at the above address within 40 working days of receiving this letter.

Once informed of the Review Panel's decision, if you are still not satisfied, then you are entitled to apply to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. Contact details are; Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS, telephone 01334 464610.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your interest in Strathclyde Police. Should you require any further assistance concerning this matter please contact me directly on 0141 435 1216 quoting the reference number given.

Yours sincerely

Colette McFarlane
