FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - REQUEST 10016

Dear Mr Jenkinson

Thank you for your request for information on any university submissions to the Brown Committee, which we received on 3 February 2010.

Your request will be considered and you will receive information to which you are entitled within the statutory timescale of 20 working days.

The Act contains a number of exemptions that permit us to restrict the disclosure of information. If any exemption does apply to your request, it is possible that some or all of the information will not be released. If this is the case, you will be informed, and told about your right of appeal. In any case we will always try to assist you as much as possible with your request.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act is available from the Information Commissioner's Office:
