Dear Mr Beckles,

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act)
Case Reference FS50307811

I acknowledge receipt of the attached email of 2 July 2010.

I understand that the Information Commissioner's Office has not only informed you that it has been supplied with the requested information in respect of which the University claims no exemption but that it has also forwarded to you a copy of such information with the University's consent.

Accordingly, you are already in receipt of the information in question from the University through the agency of the Information Commissioner's Office. The substance of this information in so far as it comprises information to which the Act applies had in any event already been communicated to you by letter dated 12 March 2010. We take the view therefore that no further action is required at this stage.

Yours sincerely,

Kirsty Allen

Dear FOI,

On 30 June 2010, the Information Commissioner's Office informed me that you have supplied them with the information requested in my original request of 12 February 2010. They also said that you have stated that you have no objection to the information being provided to myself and that, furthermore, "no exemption in respect of this information is, or has ever been, claimed".

I am therefore asking you to supply me with the information requested, namely:

"Without revealing any personal data, please provide, for all post-dismissal compensation settlements from December 2008 onward, the following:

1. Details of each of the different types of restriction any of these settlements placed on the individual dismissed (e.g. forbidding them from entering University property, forbidding them from communicating with current University employees, etc.) - note that the examples I've given are not intended to be exhaustive but merely to indicate the level of detail which I seek; and as soon as possible since, if "no exemption in respect of this information is, or has ever been, claimed" then you should have supplied this information to me by 12 March 2010 and it is now 2 July 2010.

2. For each restriction detailed in 1, the number of times that restriction has been used in these settlements."

Yours sincerely,

Bruce Beckles
