APPALLING GOVERNMENT COMPLACENCY

I enclose a copy of a letter in the DAILY TELEGRAPH deploring the incredibly complacent response by Government spokesmen to critical reports on education, crime and the Health Service computer system.

I was a young man in the 1939-45 war and, like most citizens in the free world, was inspired by the straight from the shoulder HONESTY of our great leader Winston Churchill.

Cannot you attempt to inspire this same spirit in your present Government ?

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I would appreciate details of any material you include in Senior Management Courses emphasizing (a) the disastrous effect of over optimistic pronouncements, and (b) means of inspiring the Country - eg by analysis of the key speeches of great leaders.
