

Dear Mr Cooper

I am in receipt of your e-mail of 21 February. As your request for information falls within the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency's (DVLA) day to day business, your request is subsequently being treated as 'Business as usual'. This response is to inform you that if you use or keep a motor vehicle in the United Kingdom you are obliged to comply with United Kingdom statute law.

All vehicle registration and licensing is governed by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (as amended) and the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Regulations 2002.

The Act requires the registered keeper of a vehicle to either license it or, if it is being kept off-road in the UK, make a statutory off-road declaration (SORN).

Kind regards

Policy and External Communications Directorate
