Dear Mr Annet

Information Request:

Under the provisions of the Freedom of Information act please could you disclose to me a list of empty commercial properties in the borough and the owners/liable companies

Thank you for your information request above dated 9 March 2010 and received in our office on 10 March 2010.

I have carefully reviewed your request and investigated whether there is any information disclosable to you. Please find below the information the Council holds, and which I am pleased to provide to you.

INFORMATION TO BE RELEASED

Please see attached spreadsheet.

I trust that this deals with your enquiry to your satisfaction, but if you feel that Eastbourne Borough Council has misunderstood or not responded appropriately to your request, you have two courses of action:

- You can clarify the terms of your original request to allow this to be looked at again (if you expand your request this will be dealt with as a new request)
- All applicants have a 'right of appeal'. An appeal should be focused on the original request and should identify how the Council's response failed to answer your Information Request. Appeals must be made in writing (or e-mail) and addressed to the Strategic Projects Co-ordinator, who acts as the Appeals Officer, to the address below.

Strategic Projects Co-ordinator

Telephone : +44 (0) 1323 415 042
Facsimile : +44 (0) 1323 410 322

After the Council's internal appeals procedure has been exhausted, a further appeal about the same Information Request can be directed to the Information Commissioner for adjudication. Full details will be provided should an appeal proceed to this stage.

Please note:

If you are considering re-using the information disclosed to you through this request, for any purpose outside of what could be considered for personal use, you are required under the Public Sector Re-use of Information Regulations 2005 to make an Application for Re-use to the organisation you have requested the information from. Applications for Re-Use should be directed to the address detailed in the footer below

Please contact me again, quoting your reference number, if you require any further assistance with your current request and I will do my best to provide the relevant help and advice.

Yours sincerely

Denise White
