Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your kind invitation to speak at the 'Map the Power' session on Friday, 19 March. I regret that I am unable to attend as I will be on annual leave at that time.

I hope the event goes well.

Best wishes,

Subject: Common Purpose Speaker Invitation 19th March

Dear Principal Hallett,

Common Purpose - Speaker Invite - 19th March 2010

Our 2010 Mid Scotland Leadership Development programme has started and on 19th March we are running the 'Map the Power' session. I would be so pleased if you were available, as a significant and influential player in the Mid Scotland region, to take part in the key speaker session between 3.00pm and 4.30pm that day? It's being held in the Town House in Kirkcaldy.

The session is about power and influence across the area and beyond, key sectors and players, and how they interact and impact on each other and on those who live and work in the area. Who and what influences the power and decision makers and how that's done. How does power play out - how do local government, media and business sectors work to make the area succeed? Looking at influence and change across local boundaries.

[REDACTED] is speaking in the morning and [REDACTED] is one of the other confirmed speakers for the afternoon session- there will be maximum of three.

The session will be run in small café conversation groups first followed by a plenary panel or as a straight panel session - so no speeches or presentations necessary - but some really great and interesting discussions. Fuller briefing if you are able to take part!

I do hope you are free to be with us on the 19th March and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards,

Applications are being taken for the 2010 Scotland International-Navigator course (runs April to June) - for early career, 'emerging talent' individuals who need to understand more fully about the challenges of change and leadership. Who will benefit by learning from sectors and organisations other than their own, and by early exposure to a diversity of leaders at the top of their fields from across Scotland.

Common Purpose gives people the inspiration, skills and connections to become better leaders at work and in society.

Dear Christine

[REDACTED] for Common Purpose, has asked me to email you to advise that we shall be holding a Scotland Leadership Masterclass on 2nd December 2009 - this event is for people in senior leadership positions.

It will be at the City Halls, Candleriggs, Glasgow and more information will follow by the end of this week, and [REDACTED] will update you thereafter as we firm up the key speakers.

Our first confirmed contributor is [REDACTED]

Best Regards

We are currently recruiting for the next Glasgow City Region Profile programme - 20th and 21st October 2009 - for senior people who need to refresh or improve their contacts with key players and their understanding of the issues, challenges and opportunities in the Glasgow City region.

We are also recruiting for the 2010 Glasgow Metropolitan leadership development programme - for experienced people who want to develop their leadership abilities through learning with and from their peers in other sectors, site visits, panel discussions, expert briefings and exposure to numerous different approaches to leadership in the real world - in the here and now.

Hello Christine,

Just a quick note to let you know that I am finishing up at Common Purpose this week and moving onto pastures new (probably an [REDACTED].....).

I wanted to thank you personally for your support to Common Purpose and the continued use of the office at Airthrey Castle. I am sure my replacement will be in touch with you once they have been confirmed in post.

In the meantime, [REDACTED] will be continuing to work here on behalf of the Scotland team.

All the best.

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]
