Administrative Secretary

18 December 2008

Dear Mr King,

Your email of 1 December was forwarded to me. You will have noted that in her letter of the same date Mrs Dezille, the Freedom of Information Officer, advised that if you wished to request review you should do so by writing to me. So I take it that your immediate message is intended for me, even though it does not say so.

I have carefully reviewed the handling of your original request. I do not intend to amend the rulings of the Freedom of Information Officer.

I should inform you that if necessary a certificate under Section 36 of the Freedom of Information Act will be issued about this matter.

Yours sincerely,

A. Clark
