Dear Sir/Madam,

Freedom of Information Request - RFI20081414

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act") received on 10 December 2008 seeking the following information:

*'Does Common Purpose still supply training courses to the BBC?
If not:
when were they removed?
why were they removed?
which organisation replaced them?'*

We can confirm that Common Purpose is on the list of preferred suppliers for training to the BBC and that they are used to supply training courses to the BBC.

I hope this response satisfies your request.

Your Appeal Rights:

If you are not satisfied with this response you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager. Please contact us at the following address: BBC Freedom of Information, Room 2252, White City, 201 Wood Lane, London W12 7TS, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number: If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF, telephone 01625 545 700 or see <http://www.ico.gov.uk/>

Yours sincerely

Mary Geoghegan
