Dear Mr Whenman,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Thank you for your email of 12th December 2008 requesting any documents dating from 2000 - 2008 relating to HM Government's plans should the monarch choose to abdicate.

I must inform you that, by virtue of regulations made by the Lord Chancellor, the Cabinet Office is entitled to treat several requests which relate to the same or similar information as a single request. As your requests all relate to the same subject over a period of 8 years, I have treated them as one request. Please find more information on aggregation of requests made under Freedom of Information legislation at this website:

www.justice.gov.uk/guidance/foi-procedural-fees.htm#aggregation

We therefore estimate that the cost of complying with your request would exceed the appropriate limit of £600. The appropriate limit has been specified in regulations and for central Government it is set at £600. This represents the estimated cost of one person spending 3½ working days in determining whether the Department holds the information, and locating, retrieving and extracting the information. Under section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act the Department is not obliged to comply with your request and we will not be processing your request further.

If you were to make a new request for a more narrow category of information, it may be that we could comply with that request within the appropriate limit, although I cannot guarantee that this will be the case. For example, you could refine your request to cover a single year within which plans referring to the abdication of the monarch may have been made.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.
