Dear Mr Nunn,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

I am writing to confirm that the Authority has now completed its search for the information which you requested on 7th of January 2009. You wanted to know:

"During the last five years how many times has the Local Government Ombudsman (as a result of investigating a complaint against Babergh District Council) brought to the attention of the council the fact that a member of Babergh District Council staff had misled them, lied to them or done anything else to hinder their investigation."

I can confirm that there have been no such instances.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Please contact me at the above address if you wish to re-use the information for commercial purposes so that the appropriate licence can be issued, in some instances a fee will be payable.

Information you receive continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non Babergh Copyright) information.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to the Head of Corporate Services at the above address.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Authority. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliff House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely,

M Embleton
Senior Information Officer
