I acknowledge receipt of your recent letter of 6th November regarding the above applications. As you know, we have received a number of requests asking the Secretary of State to call in the applications.

I can confirm that the requests are being considered and that an Article 14 was issued on 6th November; this direction gives the Secretary of State more time to consider whether or not she should call in the applications for her determination. Thank you for your letter, its contents is noted and will be taken into consideration. We will write again once a decision has been made.
