Dear Mr Palmer

In my letter dated 23 February, when you were provided with documents under the above reference number, I advised you that we were waiting for a response from Planning Potential regarding the release of their letter to this Office dated 6 November 2008.

We are now able to release this letter, and a copy is enclosed for you.

Government Office aims to be as helpful as possible in the way it deals with requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004. If, however, you are not satisfied with the way in which your request has been handled or the outcome, you may appeal by requesting an internal review within two calendar months of the date of this letter. Information about Government Office review procedures and how to apply for an internal review of your case is contained on the Government Office website at www.gose.gov.uk. This also explains your right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) for a decision in the event that you remain dissatisfied following the authority's review. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal review procedure described in the leaflet.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me, quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

JOHN ALDWORTH
