Dear Mr. Anderson,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO: F-2009-00051

I write in connection with your request for information dated 31 January, 2009 which was received by Warwickshire Police on 02 February, 2009, in which you seek access to the following information.

As of the 4th of December 2008

- 1: How many DNA and fingerprint samples of innocent people have deleted ?
- 2: How many innocent people requested their DNA and fingerprint samples be deleted?
- 3: If no DNA and fingerprint samples have been deleted i wish to know the reasons WHY as the UK Government have been found to be in breach of innocent peoples human rights and this would be considered a crime in itself.
- 4: As there is no right of appeal from a final decision made by the Grand Chamber when will your police force be routinely be deleting records of innocent people ?

I regret to inform you that we have not been able to complete a response to your request by the date originally stated.

I now advise you that the amended date for a response is 16th March, 2009 I can assure you that every effort will be made to ensure an appropriate response will be made within this new timescale.

Appeal Rights

Your attention is drawn to the attached sheet which details your right of appeal.

May I apologise for any inconvenience caused. Should you wish to discuss this matter please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Yours sincerely

WARWICKSHIRE POLICE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEALS PROCEDURE

This appeals procedure is issued in accordance with paragraph 36 of the Lord Chancellor's Freedom of Information Access Code of Practice.

Appeal Notification

When a Freedom of Information (FOI) applicant, who has made a request for information, is dissatisfied with the response received from Warwickshire Police, the FOI applicant should inform Warwickshire Police in writing (this may be by email) of the reasons why the response is deemed unsatisfactory.

Should a person who feels that Warwickshire Police is not complying with its Publication Scheme, the person should inform Warwickshire Police in writing (this may be by email) of the reasons for their dissatisfaction.

Action by Warwickshire Police

When a dissatisfaction report is received, the circumstances of the dispute will be reviewed initially by the Decision Makers in the Freedom of Information Office.

If the Decision Makers are unable to resolve the dispute with the FOI applicant, the dispute will be referred to a Board comprising a Head of Department and a Chief Officer. The Board will not have been involved in the original decision making process to compile the response.

The Board will consider the dispute and will advise the FOI applicant of their decision as soon as practicable but within 60 working days.

Further Action by FOI Applicant

If the FOI applicant remains dissatisfied with the Warwickshire Police response, they then have the option to refer the case to the Information Commissioner.
