Currently 21,972 taxis, 48,719 PHVs. Taxi work massively concentrated in central London while PHV activity is more dispersed, so we would not expect to see a tripling of traffic with the addition of PHVs to the permitted vehicles.

Luke

We have an adjournment debate tomorrow on the consultation to change the regs. It will focus on parking charges but in case the PHV issue comes up can you remind me of the number of licensed PHVs in London and the number of black cabs.

Thanks
