Dear Mr Old

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO: HC/00491/09

1. Any force policy or procedure document from which it would be determined whether such an officer's salary would take account of that previous period in the higher rank – in accordance with Reg.24(2) – or would alternatively be re-started back at the lowest salary scale point for the higher rank, at the commencement of each and every period of service in that higher rank.
2. Any force policy or procedure document that reported, considered or reviewed the implications of the decision in Gill v Chief Constable of Merseyside [Liverpool County Court, judgement given on 28 August 2007], in which unequivocal judgement was given against Merseyside Police by HH Judge Platts because the latter procedure is unlawful and does not comply with Regulation 24(2).
