Dear Ms Ezekpo,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - INFORMATION REQUEST

I acknowledge your request for information received on 22 February 2009. This question is being dealt with as a separate request for information because your original request was answered in full.

You requested the following information:

Information obtained from previous FOI request (RFI/04078):

In the past five years, how many children (aged between 0 and 16 years) who were in the "at risk" register or care of Camden council died as a result of:

- (a) child abuse/neglect: None.
- (b) drug abuse: None.
- (c) accident: 1 child (in care).
- (d) unknown causes: None.
- (e) other causes: 3 children (1 in care and 2 on the "at risk" register).

1. Please specify and explain the "other causes" of death of the 3 children on the " at risk" register.

Your request is being considered and you will receive a full response to your request, within the statutory timescale of 20 working days (from the day after the request is received) as defined by the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We would normally provide the information in paper copy, normal font size. If you require alternative formats, e.g. language, audio, large print, etc. then please let me know.

For your information, the Act defines a number of exemptions which may prevent release of the information you have requested. There will be an assessment and if any of the exemption categories apply then it will be withheld. We will inform you if this is the case.

If the information you request contains reference to a third party then we may consult them before we decide to release the information to you.

We may charge you a fee for the information. We will inform you if this is the case and if so, how much the fee is. In this event you would have to pay the fee before the information is processed and released. The 20 working day time limit for responses is suspended until receipt of the payment.

Further information is also available from the Information Commissioner at:
