Dear Mr Gulliford

Freedom of Information Act request: Marital Status of Borrowers

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, which we received on 25 February 2009 and for your subsequent message of 27 February.

You asked us for data on the marital status of borrowers who took out mortgages or other loans from UK banks.

Having searched our records I can confirm that the Treasury does not hold information relevant to your request.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. It will be helpful to us if you remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Your Rights to Complain under the FOI Act

If you are not happy with this reply, you may request a review by writing to HM Treasury, Information Rights Unit, 2/S2, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ. Email public.enquiries@hm-treasury.gov.uk <mailto:public.enquiries@hm-treasury.gov.uk>.

Any review request must be made within 2 months of the date of this letter.

It would assist our review if you set out which aspects of the reply concern you and why you are dissatisfied.

If you are not content with the outcome your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Treasury. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.
