Dear Mr Corrigan

Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information which Ofcom received on 2 August 2011 and has considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked:

"I understand that Ofcom attended a meeting at Freeview's offices on 18 March 2010 relating to Freeview HD DRM. Also in attendance were content providers and broadcasters. Could you supply me with a list of the organisations represented and copy of the Ofcom's records of this meeting please."

I am writing to confirm that Ofcom has now completed its search.

I can confirm that Ofcom staff attended this meeting on 18th March 2010, which was organised by Freeview.

Ofcom do not hold a list of the organisations represented, nor do we hold any records from this meeting.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me at information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Eleanor Berg

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exception cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Graham Howell
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
