

Social Care & Learning

FOI REQUEST - AIR2094-738680

Response re complaints handling:

The Ombudsman identified that the complaints process was confusing and through the introduction of regulations in September 2006 and further regulations recently introduced on 1 April 2009 assists local authorities in providing a more person-centred approach to complaints handling for adult social care. This is also being reinforced through staff training.