Dear A.R Lieu,

Freedom of information request – The admissions cycle for M100 Sept 2015 entry

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, made under section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FoIA) I am writing to inform you that the requested information is not held by the university.

A fuller explanation is provided in our response below.

Your request

We received your information request on 28 April 2015 and have treated it as a request for information made under Section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

- “1/ What was the total number of applications received from a. 'home' applicants?
b. 'overseas' applicants?
2/ What is the number of offers (conditional and unconditional) made to a. 'home' applicants?
b. 'overseas' applicants?”*

It will be highly appreciated if the following information is also available. If it is unfortunately not, in order to protect the commercial interests of your University, please attempt to respond the two questions posted above.

- 3/ What was the registration target for
a. 'home' applicants?
b. 'overseas' applicants?”*

Our response

Please be advised that the College does not currently hold this information. This is because until clearing is completed all figures are subject to change.

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Legal Compliance Manager within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance\_and\_legal/Freedom\_of\_Information\_Policy\_updated\_Oct\_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:
