Dear Ranjan Prakash Mishra,

Your request was received on 7 September 2017 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

Given that the BA tripos in economics papers are not available at Cambridge University's economics department, could you please provide the exam papers that economics students sat in each of the academic years

- 1) 2010-2011
- 2) 2011-2012
- 3) 2012-2013
- 4) 2013-2014
- 5) 2014-2015
- 6) 2015-2016

The information you have requested is refused under section 21(1) of the Act, which confers absolute exemption, because all examination papers are available for inspection by a member of the public in the University Library (<http://www.lib.cam.ac.uk/>).

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should write to Dr Kirsty Allen, Head of the Registrary's Office, quoting the reference above, at The Old Schools, Trinity Lane, Cambridge, CB2 1TN or send an email marked for her attention to foi@admin.cam.ac.uk. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless
