Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 8th November.

The information you have requested is not held. Queen Mary University of London did not receive the letter to which you refer.

If you are dissatisfied with this response and have used your real name, you may ask QMUL to conduct a review of this decision. To do this, please contact the College in writing (including by fax, letter or email), describe the original request, explain your grounds for dissatisfaction, and include an address for correspondence. You have 40 working days from receipt of this communication to submit a review request. When the review process has been completed, if you are still dissatisfied, you may ask the Information Commissioner to intervene. Please see www.ico.org.uk for details.

Yours sincerely

Paul Smallcombe

Subject: FOI request: Chris Heaton-Harris letter

Hello,

I am sending this request under the Freedom of Information Act to ask for the following information:

I believe that last month the Vice Chancellor of the university received a letter from Chris Heaton-Harris MP requesting information relating to the teaching of European affairs. Please can you send me a copy of the response that the university sent to Mr Heaton-Harris.

If you need any further information from me in order to deal with my request, please call me on [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

If you are encountering practical difficulties with complying with this request, please contact me as soon as possible (in line with your section 16 duty to advise and assist requesters) so that we can discuss the matter and if necessary I can modify the request.

I would like the information to be emailed to me at [REDACTED]

If you are able to supply some of this information more quickly than other items, please supply each item when you can rather than delay everything until it is all available.

Please can you acknowledge receipt of this request.

Many thanks for your assistance.

All the best,
[REDACTED]
