16 January 2018

Dear Mr Dean,

Thank you for your emails of 14 December 2017 in which you requested:

“The second term of PEDL147 expired on 30/09/17.

Please confirm if PEDL147 is extant. If PEDL147 is extant please provide a copy of the Deed of Variation or correspondence that has either extended its second term or moved it into its third term based on a Retention Area Work Plan.”

We have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) and, where relevant, the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIRs).

PEDL 147 is extant. Please find attached the Deed of Variation and the correspondence in respect of the Deed of Variation.

Section 40(2) and Regulation 13(1)

You will note some information including the names and contact details of some of the individuals and all signatures has been redacted. The redacted information is being withheld under Section 40(2) FOIA and 13(1) EIR. Section 40(2) provides that personal data is exempt from disclosure where disclosure would result in a contravention of one or more of the data protection principles or would contravene Section 10 of the Data Protection Act 1998 (“DPA”) which prohibits processing likely to cause damage or distress to a data subject. The data protection principles includes that any processing of personal data must be fair and lawful and must comply with one of the conditions either in schedule 2 or 3 of the DPA. The provisions of Section 13 EIR mirror those of Section 40(2) FOIA.

Oil & Gas Authority

The OGA considers that disclosure of the names, signatures and contact details of the individuals would breach the principles of fairness and lawfulness. The individuals concerned do not have public facing roles and are acting in good faith in the discharge of their employment duties. In some cases those involved in the correspondence are acting as public servants. Given that the individuals are discharging their employment duties, and in some cases acting as public servants, the OGA considers that they have and are entitled to an expectation of privacy. In any event, the relevant individuals have not consented to their personal data being disclosed.

The OGA further considers that disclosure of the names of the individuals would, or would be likely to result in them suffering from undue harassment over and above the level normally expected to be tolerated by a public servant or those acting in an employment capacity on behalf of a private company. The OGA considers that disclosure of the names, signature and contact details of the individuals would breach the data protection principles of fairness and lawfulness. In light of this this is being withheld under Section 40(2) FOIA and 13(1) EIR.

This concludes the OGA's consideration of your request.
