Dear John

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email received 7th October 2018, requesting the following information:-

- ❖ Can I request a copy of the NRC staff survey report as featured in an article in Belfast Telegraph...

Our obligation

The College is treating your request as having been made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “Act”).

When dealing with requests for information, the College’s obligations include:

1. Confirming or denying whether it holds information of the description specified in the request; and
2. Communicating the information requested to the applicant. You should note that this is effectively a decision that the information can be released into the public domain and not simply to the specific applicant.

Under the Act, the College is required to release any information that it holds to you unless an exemption applies.

Response to your request

I can confirm the information you have requested is not held by the Northern Regional College as a report has not been produced from the Staff Survey results and I am unable to give you the information requested.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you may ask the College for an internal review of the decision within 20 working days. Requests for an internal review should be submitted via the FOI@nrc.ac.uk email address. If, following the internal review, you are still not happy with the outcome; you have the right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane

Wilmslow
