Dear Mr Smith,

Your request was received on 3 September 2019 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

I wish to request the following admission statistics for the postgraduate LLM and MCL programme in the Faculty of Law for students from the United Kingdom;

- Number of applications made each year for the past five years from students who already hold an LL.M. with the university the applicant attended for previous post-graduate study.*
- Number of offers made each year for the past five years with the university the applicant attended for previous post-graduate study.*
- Number of applicants made each year for the past five years from students who hold an LL.M. from Durham University.*
- Number of offers made each year for the past five years to students who hold an LL.M. from Durham University.*

The requested information is attached. Applicants self-report their previous studies.

Please note that the attached document should not be copied, reproduced or used except in accordance with the law of copyright.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the
