

Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Review Notice

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled or the decision reached you have the right to ask Glasgow Caledonian University to review its actions and decisions. This must be made in writing (or another recordable form) and must specify

- your name
- an address for correspondence
- the request for information which you require to be reviewed
- why you are dissatisfied with the actions or decisions

This should be sent within 40 working days from the date of this notice to

Assistant Head (Information Compliance), Department of Governance, Glasgow Caledonian University, Cowcaddens Road, Glasgow G4 0BA, Tel: 0141 331 8392, email: foi@gcu.ac.uk

Further details on Review can be found on the Scottish Information Commissioner's Website

If we are unable to resolve any complaint, you can complain to the Scottish Information Commissioner (SIC) who oversees the Act. An application to the Commissioner must be made within six months of receipt of the University's review outcome. The formal appeal mechanism is available on the Commissioner's website at:

www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal

The online appeal service is available 24/7 and offers real time help and advice about your appeal.

The SIC's contact details are

The Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife KY16 9DS, Tel: 01334 464610, Fax: 01334 464611, email: enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info webpage: itspublicknowledge.info

Thereafter an appeal can be made, on a point of law only, to the Court of Session and must be made within 42 days of receipt of the SIC's decision notice.
