Subject: Kingsford Stadium Withdrawal

Hi Robert,

Picked up your email. For your information I enclose the press statement with respect to the Kingsford Stadium planning application that was due to be presented to Council next week.

"A spokesperson for Aberdeen City Council said: "We can confirm that item 9(h), in relation to the application for planning consent for proposed community and sports facilities at West Kingsford, has been withdrawn from the agenda for the meeting of full Council on 11 October 2017 at the request of the applicant, Aberdeen Football Club.

"Having regard to the nature of the application and the associated complexities, and in light of the public interest, the Planning Authority has acceded to the request on this occasion.

"The request has been made to enable the applicant to seek further discussions and clarification to take place with the Planning Authority. If necessary, further planning consultation will follow."

Kind regards,

Eric
