Dear M Esslemont

Re: Freedom of Information request – 52663

Thank you for your email of 04 March which asks for data in respect of Vietnamese victims of human trafficking. Your request has been handled as a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. The full request can be found below:

How many Vietnamese victims of human trafficking have been subject to voluntary and forced removals (deportation) since 2016?

I am able to disclose the information set out in the enclosed Annex A.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to foirequests@homeoffice.gov.uk, quoting reference 52474. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.

As part of any internal review the Department's handling of your information request would be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response. If you were to remain dissatisfied after an internal review, you would have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner as established by section 50 of the FOIA.

Yours sincerely,
