Dear Mr Waldron

Freedom of Information Request reference: 46118

Thank you for your e-mail of 8th November 2017, in which you asked the following:

Have any formal complaints been made about the Independent Anti Slavery Commissioner? If so, what were the outcomes of those complaints?

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We are aware of formal complaints which have been made about the professional conduct of the Independent Anti-Slavery Commissioner and his interaction with another organisation and its staff. We are taking the appropriate action.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to foirequests@homeoffice.gsi.gov.uk, quoting reference 46118. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.

As part of any internal review the Department's handling of your information request would be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response. If you were to remain dissatisfied after an internal review, you would have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner as established by section 50 of the FOIA.

Yours sincerely

Modern Slavery Unit
